

Zenas Gerig

Dr. Zenas Gerig founded the Jamaica Theological Seminary (JTS) in 1960, and was its first Principal (he later became the first President). He had a significant impact on the church and on theological education both in Jamaica and in the rest of the Caribbean. Not only was he a prime mover behind the Caribbean Evangelical Theological Association, but he founded the Caribbean Graduate School of Theology (CGST) in Kingston in 1986. Dr. Gerig passed away in September 2011 and the Zenas Gerig Memorial Lecture was instituted in his honor, beginning in September 2012.
